

Student Scholarships & Awards – Spring 2018

Department of Integrative Biology

Applications due April 1, 2018

UNDERGRADUATES

- Eugene Jorgens Memorial Scholarship
Eligibility: Zoology major, in good academic standing, and have completed their freshman year. Preference given to Wisconsin residents. Graduating seniors are not eligible.
- John T. Curtis Ecology Scholarship
Eligibility: Botany or zoology major, in good academic standing, and have an interest in ecology. Graduating seniors are not eligible.
- Netzer-Brouchoud Scholarship
Eligibility: Student actively working with a faculty member within the Dept. of Integrative Biology and be studying wild bird life. Consideration will be given to need, extra-curricular activities, and academic standing of student. Students graduating spring or summer 2018 are not eligible.
- Undergraduate Summer Research Awards
Awards for research expenses and/or stipends to support students during the research period. Students must be actively working with a faculty member in the Dept. of Integrative Biology and must enroll in at least 2 independent research credits (Zoo 681,682,691,692, or 699, or the same course in another department) during the summer when research is conducted or in the fall when results are written up.

Applications: <https://integrativebiology.wisc.edu/undergraduate-programs/zoology-major/zoology-undergraduate-major-scholarships/>

GRADUATES

- Graduate Summer Research Awards
Awards for summer research expenses and/or research stipends. Funds can be used for expenses such as equipment, supplies, and travel related research.
- John Jefferson Davis Travel Awards
Support for graduate student travel to meetings and conferences.
- Netzer-Brouchoud Scholarship
Students must be actively working with a faculty member within the Dept. of Integrative Biology and be studying wild bird life. Consideration will be given to need, extra-curricular activities, and academic standing of student. Students graduating spring or summer 2018 are not eligible.
- Rita and Kenneth Hoots Graduate Scholarship
Applicants must be: 1) a graduate student in the Department of Integrative Biology or have a faculty advisor with at least a 50%-time appointment in the Department of Integrative Biology; and 2) Demonstrate financial need. Students graduating spring or summer 2018 are not eligible.
- William C. Burns and Lemuel A. Fraser Teaching Enrichment Scholarship
Graduate students who have been teaching assistants for Zoo 101, 102, 151, and/or 152 during their first year (or two semesters) of teaching. Consideration will be given to students who demonstrate promise and excellence in the teaching of introductory courses.
- Dr. Stanley Weinreb and Dr. Eva Lurie Weinreb Graduate Student Fellowship
Student shall: 1) Be in the final year of graduate study in the department and shall have completed all doctoral degree requirements with the exception of the dissertation and defense; 2) Conduct research in the areas of cell biology and anatomy with the emphasis on structure (ultrastructure) and function of the cell utilizing the tools of microscopy; 3) Be a U.S. citizen; 4) Be a student in high academic standing within the department.

Applications: <https://integrativebiology.wisc.edu/graduate-program/current-students/>